Re: The Lewis and Clark Mount Hood Wilderness Act of 2007

Dear Members of Congress:

The Lewis and Clark Mount Hood Wilderness Act was discussed at the April 17th and 24th Villages Board of Directors meetings and ratified at the May 2007 Town Hall meeting.

Additions of wilderness areas and the Wild & Scenic river designations will secure enduring benefits for our citizens and communities. It will protect local resources, wildlife, and the scenic beauty of our area. Years of diverse citizen support on behalf of wilderness areas in the Mount Hood region deserve a strong bill. We commend our Senators and Representatives, who have together demonstrated on many occasions the interest and support for passing a Mount Hood bill. We encourage you to pass the Lewis and Clark Mount Hood Wilderness Act of 2007.

Sincerely,

Nancy Dougherty,
Board of Directors Chair
