

Hoodland Fire district - listed rate = 0.26385%

Property Type	2011 Valuations	Amt of tax based on above rate	Real amt to be collected (CC web site)	Real rate
Real Property	$ 1,092,171,703
Manuf'd Structure	$ 7,842,180
Personal Prop	$ 7,474,105
Public Utility	$ 22,227,604
Total M5 Value	$ 1,129,715,592	$ 2,980,755	$ 2,093,351	0.1853%
(1000's)	$ 1,129,716

Using the Hoodland Fire district "real rate" as a comparison point and based on the above property valuations, a special "disaster relief" district could raise the following amounts.

So a special district could raise

Tax rate	0.100%	0.080%	0.070%	0.060%	0.050%
Per 1000 valuation $	1.00 $	0.80 $	0.70 $	0.60 $	0.50
Potential Amount $	1,129,716 $	903,772 $	790,801 $	677,829 $	564,858